IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT

DIVISION SIX

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

EDWARD COOPER.

Defendant and Appellant.

2d Crim. No. B269174
(Super. Ct. No. NA102125)
(Los Angeles County)

Edward Cooper appeals from the judgment entered after a jury convicted him of first degree residential burglary (Pen. Code, § 459).<sup>1</sup> The trial court sentenced appellant to two years state prison, imposed various fees and fines, and issued a criminal protective order (§ 136.2).

We appointed counsel to represent appellant in this appeal. After counsel's examination of the record, he filed an opening brief in which no issues were raised.

On September 19, 2016, we advised appellant that he had 30 days within which to personally submit any contentions or issues he wished us to consider. No response has been received.

The record shows that appellant forcibly entered a Long Beach condominium while the victims were out of town for a week. The police found appellant inside the home and determined that furniture, a mattress, stamps, a doctoral dissertation, receipts, bank statements, and clothing had been moved. Appellant left his hair clippings in the bathroom, cooked meals in the kitchen, and used the condominium as a mailing address. A police detective found a bag in the home containing paperwork bearing the name "Edward Cooper." After appellant was arrested, the victims discovered that several canvas paintings were missing.

We have reviewed the entire record and are satisfied that appellant's attorney has fully complied with his responsibilities and that no arguable issues exist. (People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, 443; People v. Kelly (2006) 40 Cal.4th 106, 126.)

The judgment is affirmed.

NOT TO BE PUBLISHED.

YEGAN, Acting P.J.
